A NOTE FROM PASTOR SHARI:

Good Morning!

Today begins a new series on GRACE! It is amazing, and I hope you will be here each week! We will be preaching from the scriptures and will also draw on our Wesleyan heritage to “unpack” the subject. The New Testament writers and John Wesley had a lot to say on the topic of grace.

I want to share a few things about Wesley a founder of the United Methodist Church. He was an open air preacher, rather than an indoor pulpit expositor. He reached people the way Jesus did! Wesley knew the heartbeat of God. He understood the reason for the cross, and he travelled and preached like there was no tomorrow. John had his quirks, but little else mattered to him but the Great Commission. If that makes him stand out from you and I, we need to make the adjustment!

John Wesley said, “If you are on fire for God, people will show up just to watch you burn.” It is my prayer that this sermon series lights a fire in your soul!

I love being your pastor!
