MESSAGE NOTES

Keep Calm and Love On | Part 3

Dear friends, I am not writing a new commandment for you; rather it is an old one you have had from the very beginning. This old commandment—to love one another—is the same message you heard before. Yet it is also new. Jesus lived the truth of this commandment, and you also are living it. For the darkness is disappearing, and the true light is already shining. (1 John 2:7-8, NLT)

Do not love this world nor the things it offers you, for when you love the world, you do not have the love of the Father in you. For the world offers only a craving for physical pleasure, a craving for everything we see, and pride in our achievements and possessions. These are not from the Father, but are from this world. And this world is fading away, along with everything that people crave. But anyone who does what pleases God will live forever. (1 John 2:15-17, NLT)

These temptations can derail me from loving God and loving others:

1. Longing to _____.
2. Hungering to _____.
3. Yearning to _____.

How can I overcome the temptations that derail me from loving God and loving others?

1. Remember _____ !

This is the message we heard from Jesus and now declare to you: God is light and there is no darkness in him at all. (1 John 1:5, NLT)

2. Call on _____.

"I am writing these things to warn you about those who want to lead you astray. But you have received the Holy Spirit, and he lives within you, so you don't need anyone to teach you what is true. For the Spirit teaches you everything you need to know, and what he teaches is true, it is not a lie." (1 John 2:26-27, NLT)

3. Act like _____ !

"See how very much our Father loves us, for he calls us his children, and that's what we are!" (1 John 3:1, NLT)
