HOW TO PRAY FOR STUDENTS

Pray...

- That their bodies, minds, souls, and innocence would be protected
- That they would learn and do their schoolwork to the Glory of God
- That they would be a friend to the lonely, forgotten and friendless
- That they would not be ashamed of the Gospel
- That God would bring Christian people into their lives
- That they would grow in knowledge and wisdom
- That they would be obedient to their teachers, parents, and God
- That they would be peacemakers
- That they would be prayer warriors

ENGAGING YOUR CHILDREN IN PRAYER

There are many different ways to communicate to God in prayer. There are as many ways to pray as there are people in the world, and I have found that oftentimes it is children who have the most simple, yet profound prayers. If you pay attention, you can learn just as much from a child praying as you can any trained pastor or theologian. The Kingdom of God truly does belong to them! (Luke 18:16)

Try this out at home:

Pray with art. Paint, draw, carve, mold, color, sketch or doodle your prayers, even if you do not consider yourself very artsy or creative. Have fun with it.

Paint, draw, sketch your prayers and dreams for your life, school year, family, church, and neighborhood. Draw or color your worries and fears. Draw Jesus holding you, carrying your fears, hurts, worries, doubts.

In Jesus name, amen.
